

South San Francisco Public Library Teacher Cards

The South San Francisco Public Library offers Teacher Library Cards to teachers in our community. If you are a teacher, home school educator or day care provider living or working in our service area, and you have a personal library card in good standing, you are eligible for a Teacher Card.

Benefits of your Teacher Card:

- No fines on material used in the classroom. Check out up to fifty items.
- Classroom and personal use material on separate library records.
- Use your Teacher Card at any branch of the South San Francisco Public Library.

How to apply:

- Please complete the attached form and bring it, along with your personal library card, to any branch of the South San Francisco Public Library. Your personal library card must be in good standing, meaning your card is current, you do not owe fines over $15.00, and you have no billed items.
- Your Teacher Card may only be used for classroom materials and is not for personal use. Please be aware that you are responsible for any lost or damaged material checked out to your Teacher Card.
